Teachers of Hanna Oyen Inspectorates Hold Convention

Teachers of Hanna and Oyen school inspectorates meet in Hanna Thursday and Friday, November 1-2, for their annual convention.

Excellent programs have been arranged for the four sessions and interesting social periods will be provided.

It is generally anticipated that the attendance will be large. Teachers from this district will be well represented. Most schools will be closed for the two days the convention is in session.

WEDDING

JUDSON—MOORE

The wedding of Florence Alberta Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Moore, of Benton, Alta., and Mr. Reginald Louis Judson, son of Mr. Charles W. Judson, of Prince Edward Island, was quietly solemnized in St. Andrews church, Youngstown, Alberta, on Wednesday, October 24, 1934, Rev. J. S. Parke, officiating. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Judson left for Drumheller, and later spent the week end with friends in Helmsdale and Cappon districts.

The bride's costume was of royal blue crepe and beige accessories.

To Distribute Trees Again

More than 100,000 white spruce trees, and some 8,400 green ash will be available for distribution next spring from the provincial nurseries at Oliver. These trees will be distributed on the usual plan, to farmers who have wood lots, or to schools, community centres, etc.

Look at your address label.

Subscribers

The amount of your subscription is only a small matter considered individually, but collectively, outstanding subscriptions are a serious matter for your HOME TOWN PAPER.

We ask the co-operation of all subscribers at this season.
